BRIEF MENTIONINGS.

Events in and About the City Given in a Nutshell.

Opera House to-night—Bynum-Maher meeting.

Will Ross, the drum major of the Six Footers' drum corps, is one of the best handlers of the baton in the state.

St. Clairsville presbytery, in session at Bridgeport, voted in favor of slight revision of the Presbyterian creed or standard of faith.

The committee on streets, alleys and grades meets to-day at 2 o'clock, on Coal street, between Fourth and Fifth streets, to investigate a grade.

Evangelist Randall preached at the city workhouse last night, and had an attentive audience of twenty-five inmates of the prison. His work there, says Mr. Randall, is very effective. He hopes the public will heed his recent call for assistance.

J. S. Beall and I. C. Wright, two well known business men of Wellsburg, were involved in a buggy accident on the Bethany pike, near Wellsburg, yesterday afternoon. Their horse became frightened and ran off, throwing the vehicle and occupants into Buffalo creek. Mr. Beall and Mr. Wright both escaped almost miraculously without a scratch, although the buggy was badly broken.

To Revive the Philharmonic.

It was a sorry reflection on the musical culture and taste of Wheeling when the Philharmonic quartette was allowed to drop into innocuous desuetude, and now it appears that some of the public-spirited patrons of the divinely harmonious made have realized their remissness and are endeavoring to revive this quartette which gave so many enjoyable recitals in the days gone by. There will be left at the music stores this week subscription blanks for the signature of those persons who will pledge themselves to the support of the Philharmonic quartette during the winter. It is not a money making scheme in any sense. The promoters in addition to reviving these recitals, have arranged to furnish free tickets to all musical pupils who furnish them with a certificate from their teachers. Surely there is enough pride in the music-loving people of the city to support the present scheme without further prodding by the ever accommodating press.

Demise of Mr. Edele.

At his home on South Jacob street yesterday occurred the death of Balzer M. Edele in the eighty-third year of his age. The deceased has been a resident of the South Side for many years and his death will be mourned by a large circle of friends. Mr. Edele came to this country from the border of Switzerland in 1825 and resided for some time at Cambridge, Ohio, and came to this city in 1865. He was a cooper and brewer by trade and brewed beer for Peter Zimmer, many years ago. He is survived by four children, Frank, Fred, Miss Carrie and Mrs. William Kunkle.

Mrs. Jane Morgan Dead.

Mrs. Jane Morgan, relict of the late captain William Morgan is dead. Deceased was in the eighty-ninth year of her age. She came to this country from England in 1812 and has lived in the little cottage in which she died since the year 1840. She was a familiar figure in the locality in which she lived and there has been a constant stream of visitors to her late home since her death. The funeral will take place from her late home this afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment at Peninsula cemetery.

BYNUM AND MAHER SPEAK THIS EVENING

At the Opera House, and It Bids Fair to be One of the Best Meetings of the Campaign.

THE DISTINGUISHED INDIANAN

Will be Warmly Received—Mr. Maher is an Eloquent Irish-American Speaker.

This evening at the Opera House, one of the most attractive Republican mass meetings of the campaign will be held, with Hon. W. D. Bynum, of Indiana, and Hon. B. F. Maher, of Maine, as the oratorical stars. Great interest has been aroused in the meeting, and doubtless the Opera House will be packed. Previous to the speaking, there will be a street demonstration by the Rough Rider regiment and other marching clubs, for which Colonel Baguley has issued the following general orders, which will be followed closely by the companies in order that the speaking may not be delayed:

Headquarters, First Regiment, West Virginia Rough Riders.

General Orders No. 5.

I. The regiment will assemble on Chapline street north of Twelfth, under the command of Major George W. Otto, for the purpose of escorting Hon. W. D. Bynum and Hon. B. F. Maher to the Opera House, at 7:30 p. m. sharp, Wednesday, October 17.

II. Edward Elliott is hereby appointed adjutant of the first battalion, with the rank of second lieutenant. He will be obeyed and respected accordingly.

By command of Colonel Baguley.

A. C. DAVIS, Adjutant.

Ex-Congressman Bynum is a speaker of national prominence. From 1885 to 1895 he was one of the most prominent members of Congress on the Democratic side, but in 1896 he found himself, like so many others, unable to follow the Bryanite creed, and became one of the leading spirits in the organization of the National Democratic (gold wing) party, whose national chairman he was in the campaigns of 1896 and 1898. This year Mr. Bynum is supporting President McKinley and sound money with all the vigor in his energetic make-up, and is proving a thorn of large dimensions in the side of the present-day Democracy. His speech will be largely devoted to a discussion of sound money.

Hon. B. F. Maher, of Maine, the other principal speaker of the evening, is a noted Irish-American orator, whose fund of wit and humor is inexhaustible. He will entertain the audience, without a doubt.

Councilman William M. Baird, of the Island, will act as chairman of the meeting, and the following vice presidents will occupy seats on the stage:

John Norris, Alex. Forney, John V. Bowen, J. M. Dunlap, John F. Ryan, W. R. Meyer, J. C. Williams, E. Buckman, A. L. Waite, Dr. L. N. Reeder, Benjamin Baker, D. G. Evans, J. B. Kitchner, Frank Woods, B. F. Higgins, James Wheat, W. B. Irvine, Dominick Jacovetty, J. H. Wells, Hazlett Freeze, J. A. Leitchright, A. C. Davis, J. W. Kite, F. M. Work, C. D. Thompson, Morris Horkholmer, Brown Berry, Milton Hanauer, T. B. Simpson, M. Sonnerbom, Dr. B. L. Jenson, Charles Seibert, Joseph Riddle, Albert Whitaker, J. E. Reed, G. R. E. Ghehrst, D. W. Martin, Geo. Crumbacker, Adam Kelly, Raymond Bauer, Jacob Morris, Henry Jones, George Wise, Dr. C. F. Ulrich, E. R. Metzger, Dr. C. M. Friswell, W. B. McCormack, C. E. Haymond at Elm Grove.

Hon. W. E. Haymond, Democratic candidate for Congress, addressed a meeting at Elm Grove last night. The meeting took place in the town hall and the only feature was the extreme dearth of enthusiasm. Andrew Wilson acted as chairman of the meeting and introduced the speaker of the evening, who arose to address the audience amid a painful silence. The Young Men's Democratic club, the Will Irwin club, the Washington and Webster district clubs went out on special motors and headed by the Triadelphia cornet band, paraded the principal streets and endeavored to create some enthusiasm, but the effort was a signal failure.

Fitchman at Benwood.

The Hon. C. H. Fitchman, ex-secretary of the Knights of Labor, and Hon. B. F. Maher addressed an enthusiastic meeting of Republicans at the city hall at Benwood last night. The meeting was scheduled to take place at the corner of Sixth and Main streets, but was held indoors owing to the unpropitious weather. The capacity of the hall was taxed and the enthusiasm was pronounced throughout the meeting. The Young Men's Republican club paraded in their uniforms before the meeting and were enthusiastically greeted.

SOCIETY.

There was a pleasant gathering at the Avondale home of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Keyser to celebrate their thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. This is always a joyful home-coming and reunion for the children. Five only of their eight children, however, were able to be present. Those that were able to attend were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Keyser, of Bellaire; Mr. and Mrs. Lou Keyser, of the Island; Mrs. A. H. McElwain, of McClellandtown, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Bert Norton, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Hall, of Shady Side. At nine o'clock they sat down to a feast of good things which was heartily enjoyed. The evening was a happy one to both parents and children, and when they dispersed for the night, they all united in wishing their parents many happy returns of this the happiest day of the year.

On Monday evening a party of about twenty-five young people from the city went out to the home of Mrs. King, of Mt. de Chantal, where they spent a very enjoyable evening in dancing and singing. Refreshments were served at a seasonable hour. The music was furnished by the Lone Star mandolin and guitar club.

Mrs. W. A. Isett, of North Main street, entertained the North Main street euchre club and visitors yesterday afternoon in a most charming manner.

The Carroll Club gave its opening dance of the season last evening and there was a large attendance of the members. The Opera House orchestra rendered the music and the dancers glided over the waxen floor until an early hour this morning. At the conventional hour refreshments were served in the dining room. The refreshment committee was composed of Mesdames George Hook and M. Trueschel. The floor committee was composed of the following members of the club: D. W. Cochran, Harry Wain, Gus Weitzel, Al. Faulhaber, Albert Flading, Harry Vogler, August Hoffman, George Sauvageot, W. C. Handlan, Jr., and Dr. J. J. O'Kane.

The Osceola social club were royally entertained with a sour kraut and pig-tail luncheon at their club rooms at 1712 Alley F last evening. Ed. Bearley, candidate for county commissioner of the Fourth ward, met with the members and there was a social session of speeches and songs that lasted far into the night.

AMONG THE CLERGY.

Coffee Being Replaced by Postum Food Coffee.

"I am the wife of a minister. About three years ago a warm friend, an exemplary mother and the conscientious wife of a minister, asked me if I had ever tried giving up coffee and using the Postum Food Coffee. I had been telling her of my excessive nervousness and ill health. She said: 'We drink nothing else for breakfast but Postum Food Coffee, and it is a delight and a comfort to have something that we do not have to refuse the children when they ask for it.'"

"I was surprised that she would permit the children to drink even the food coffee, but she explained that it was a most healthful beverage and that the children thrived on it. A very little thought convinced me that for brain work, one should not rely upon a stimulant such as coffee is, but should have food and the very best of food."

"My first trial of Postum was a failure. The maid of all work brought it to the table, lukewarm, weak, and altogether lacking in character. We were in despair, but decided on one more trial. At the second trial, we faithfully followed the directions, used four teaspoons to the pint of water, let it boil full fifteen minutes after the real boiling began, and served it with rich cream. It was delicious and we were all won."
